

EMERGING LEADERS

AN INITIATIVE OF HDA'S CONVENE

Preparing the best and brightest of today, to shape the pharmaceutical supply chain of tomorrow.

To develop the next generation of supply chain leaders, the Healthcare Distribution Alliance (HDA) is further expanding its professional development program, Convene, to include the Emerging Leaders program. This program was created to engage the industry's best and brightest and prepare them to become our leaders of tomorrow. All participants will enjoy access to exclusive event discounts, real-world experience and in-depth industry insights. By joining this program, you will have an opportunity to learn more about HDA and how to more effectively use the tools we make available to guide your career development to the benefit of the company you represent. You also will gain access to an expanded network of peers that represent the many different segments, regions and companies that make up our industry.

Benefits of participating in this program include:

ABOUT THE HEALTHCARE DISTRIBUTION ALLIANCE

The Healthcare Distribution Alliance (HDA) represents primary pharmaceutical distributors — the vital link between the nation's pharmaceutical manufacturers and more than 200,000 pharmacies, hospitals, long-term care facilities, clinics and others nationwide. Since 1876, HDA has helped members navigate regulations and innovations to get the right medicines to the right patients at the right time, safely and efficiently.

ABOUT CONVENE: HDA'S PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Sponsored by Mylan Inc. and Upsher-Smith Laboratories, LLC, Convene brings together supply chain executives and future leaders to create the next generation of distribution leaders, discuss unique experiences and share tips and tools for developing your career as an industry professional. The professional development program features live and virtual events and opportunities throughout the year.
